

BRAVESHIP

for Symphony Orchestra

by Matt Cook

BRAVESHIP

Written by Matt Cook for full symphony orchestra, Braveship, is a multi-media program of all-original contemporary music in 13 movements, and several dozen fantastical illustrations projected on screen. Braveship follows the story of Azra, a young boy who discovers an airship with a rich history. In the style of Peter and the Wolf, a narrator takes the audience along on the journey with Azra. In addition to the live show, Braveship includes a supplemental novel as well as a video game. Braveship was premiered by the Orchestra of Southern Utah in 2022, and recorded and mixed by a multi-GRAMMY-winning team at Disney's Skywalker Sound. The album includes a beautiful rendition of Cook's classical crossover piece Fly With Me, sung by Australian soprano Mirusia, hailed as the "Angel of Australia."
